Subject: Dimock Plan

Den/Jerry,

I thought it would be a good idea for us to have a "game" plan for moving forward on the Dimock Site. So here's my draft of that. I know that this could all be subject to review up the chain, but thought it would be good for the five of us to have an understanding of generally what's ahead.

The dates are not in concrete, but give some ideas on being able to report up the chain.

I will be helping Augie with their 8 hour refresher some tomorrow., but am available to discuss this before I go away, if you want.

Rich
